The Ross Powers Foundation is a non-profit foundation that helps provide financial support for talented athletes nationally. The Ross Powers Foundation feels that opportunity to achieve excellence should not be limited by ones financial situation. It is the mission of the Ross Powers Foundation to truly level the playing field. If an athlete has the talent drive and determination to achieve excellence in their sport, then we want to ensure that the financial support is there. Please join with us to ensure that young US athletes can pursue their dreams of national, international, and Olympic competition and excellence in their sport.
